Notices for this week

Mostly, this week will be about the Easter Day activities and a display of the pictures taken that morning. The service was really well attended and overran a little, but no one seemed to mind because it was an excellent service, put together by Revd Alex, and maybe it helped him get over his recent illness. It was good to see him back and in good health. The photographs are on page 2 and show scenes mainly outside the church, several to do with the inauguration of the new Easter Candle and its first time of lighting by Revd Alex, from the Ashes of the Palm Crosses from Palm Sunday. Most of the rest show the opening of the Tomb of Jesus and showing it empty as he had already gone!

Finally of course, the Easter Egg Hunt for the Children, although some of them seemed to have grown a little!!

Benefice: Rev Barbara; Potton: Chris, Dave & Fran, Rob & Lynn & Family, Paula, Pam, Felicity, Lee, Vivienne, Joyce, Susan, Maggie, Mark, Nigel, James, Joan, Revd Alex; Sutton: Roger; Cockayne Hatley: Tony;

For all those remembering their dearly departed. This week we remember Susan Brooks daughter of Fran and Dave, very ill for so long, now at peace. We also pray for Roger Catt who passed away last weekend. Roger was known by many as a chorister in many local choirs, but also as a member of a choir at Ely Cathedral.

Amen
